To the humble diner there's naught on earth that's finer than good old fashioned Greens. For month's our hearts were sighin', for Spinach, Dandelion, Asparagus and Squash, String Beans, Lima Beans, Green Peas and Beets. Rhubarb, Celery, Lettuce and Cucumbers. They are the sign and taken that winter days are broken. Oh, greens! There's nothing Beats 'em! The man who daily eats 'em has better grub by jing, than is known, to the Palace of a king: Oh, Greens! Greens! our mothers stewed 'em, our father gladly chewed 'em. Note all those Famous Creatures whose proud and handsome features appear in magazines: If you but knew their story, you'd find they rose to glory through having eaten greens: All garden sass is splendid, and never may be ended the fame of Peas and Beans: May naught decrease the numbers of our Special lines of greens, greens.
